Editorial by Sarah

Well, have we, or haven't we? According to the BT engineer I spoke to, the whole village should have access to Super Fast Broadband. But, it seems as though the mechanics have been sorted but we are waiting for the administration wheels to grind their way to completion. You will have to check with the super fast Cornwall website, if you can actually order it. Having spent a most enjoyable hour with Ann Adey, getting caught in the good old BT loop of clicking from one screen to another, good luck with that one.

Fingers crossed by the time we publish this, you should all be a bit further down the line to being able to stream your edition of Keeping up With the Kardashians rather than having to watch it live. It's been a long time coming and largely down to Norman Osborne and his sheer determination to hound BT into submission, well done Norman.

It is so important to the School that they have access to this facility and no doubt anyone who runs a business or works from home will also be so much better off. It does beggar belief that it has taken so long for this service to be available in the village, and also the inconsistencies were particularly vexing. I've had fibre optic for about the last two years, but it stopped at the junction of Ferrets Cross (the T junction going into the village from Wainhouse). Hopefully, I will no longer be a social outcast whom people grumbled at about her broadband speed, so all's well that ends well!

Readers will be aware of the efforts to clamp down on plastic waste that washes up on our beaches. I'm very proud of Cornwall and in particular the people of Bude who are working very hard to reduce plastic usage and I was delighted to attend the recent launch of the Greener Bude campaign. The campaign is made up of local organisations, including the Bude Cleaner Seas Project and the Refill Bude initiative who encourage local people to use more environmentally friendly products. Surfers Against Sewage group have also asked Parliament to become plastic free.

Even with the heavy snow, strong winds, sub-zero temperatures and impassable roads, many people still made it to work to run our vital public services and businesses which support the Cornish economy. Just recently I was given a written assurance from the Transport Secretary that making the line at Dawlish more resilient is his number one national priority, and Network Rail is already conducting work to do just that. Fortunately the snow melted in time for St Piran's Day festivities, and in Parliament the six Cornish MPs held a Taste of Cornwall event to celebrate our patron saint and to herald our fantastic food and drink sector. Eleven producers travelled up from Cornwall to show off their products. Many MPs and government ministers attended to taste the fantastic produce on offer and to speak with business representatives. Cornwall has a thriving food and drink sector which has huge potential to tap into domestic and global markets.

Library Tickets

Library tickets are necessary so that Cornwall Council can keep a record of number and popularity of books. It will also show how often a micro, mobile or static library is used. So use it or lose it.

You can obtain a ticket by applying on-line by going to “www.cornwallcouncil” then “library”, then click on “joining form” and fill this in making sure you select your local library then submit it. Alternatively go to your local static Library (Bude) and they will sort one out for you either by a paper form or on-line on one of their public computers

It is also possible to click and receive at the micro library (in this case Wainhouse Inn) any book or books you require. There is an obvious advantage in that Wainhouse is open 7 days a week and from morning to late at night. And they do a nice coffee or something stronger!

Bob's Gardening Spot

April is the ideal time to plant evergreen hedges, especially wind break hedges, as it gives them a good chance to establish well. If you have a pot grown shrub, now is also a good time to transfer it to the garden. Deadhead any daffy's that have gone over, break the head behind the swollen flower head to just leave the stalk on the plant.

Plant bulbs this month such as dahlias, cannas and gladioli. Sow your salad seeds such as lettuce, beetroot and radish little and often to ensure a good continuous crop, its also time to plant your tomato seeds indoors.

May is a good time to start mowing and weeding your lawn and give them a feed to perk them up.

If your sweet peas are starting to grow away make them go where you want them to by training and tying them. Runner and French bean seeds can be sown outside now. If you have grown sweetcorn indoors now is the time to plant them out.....Happy Spring Gardening, Bob

BOOK CLUB

OUR ENDLESS NUMBERED DAYS by Claire Fuller

Peggy's father is a survivalist. This story is about the experiences of her, aged 8-14 and how two stories coincide and the consequences of growing up.

We enjoyed this well written book which drew you in. We had an excellent discussion on the pros and cons and the likelihood of them not being discovered among other issues.

I KNOW MY NAME by C J Cooke

This was not in the Book Club but from Bude Library. The recommendations on the book said "Utterly compelling and unnervingly twisty" and "Chilling and intelligent." Either way it was a well written and thought out book which I enjoyed and found compulsive.

Eloise wakes with complete amnesia amid strangers who may or may not know her. Her husband suddenly finds himself with a toddler and a new born and has no idea what has happened.

January from the word go was a very stormy month. Wind gusts in excess of 45 mph were commonly recorded here at Canworthy Water in the garden, and doubtless were considerably exceeded on any high ground locally. Whilst no days saw any particular rain events, the 18th gave a very wet morning with 0.6" falling in less than hour to 11 that day. The total amount collected for the month was 5.83" which is pretty much what one would expect for January.

Rather unusually five thunderstorms were observed, some with large hail and some impressive squalls. A couple of these formed into straight-line gust fronts, which although not uncommon in the winter, were noted as producing very strong winds of short duration.

February started on a similar vein, 43 mph being recorded on the 1st, early in the morning, with light snow observed in the first week, but nothing amounting to much.

Conditions in this month were variable, to say the least, very mild mid-month with extensive hill fog to the surface here on the 14th.

By the 22nd, matters had changed considerably. Virtually overnight upper-air conditions had started to be influenced by an extension of Continental Arctic air towards the western area of Europe bringing the intensely cold polar air-stream with it. By the 28th, a severe frost of -6C was recorded here, and the following day the temperature did not rise above 1 degree centigrade in an increasing easterly wind.

Storm "Emma" as named by the Portuguese Met. Office was now approaching from the Bay of Biscay and this was to produce severe winter conditions over the next few days.

February was, however a fairly dry month, with a total of 1.72" being collected here.

At the beginning of February we had a (battery) candle lit presentation evening on a cold and windy Crackington Beach. One of our newest members was enrolled by saying her promise. Other members were awarded their 1st and 2nd year challenge badges being part of our unit for 1 and 2 years respectively and completing the necessary badges and community action needed for these badges. Two further members were presented with their 4th year challenge badges, being part of our unit for 4 years and now moving on to the next step of their guiding journey at rangers. Finally, 3 members were awarded their Baden-Powell award which was the culmination of 2 years hard work, completing various evenings with different themes ending in their Baden-Powell adventure which included a sleepover in the Mediterranean biome at the Eden Project. As this is a very special award that few girls achieve (it being the highest award for a guide) Jill Jeffs our county commissioner came and presented the award to them. After the presentations were complete we all retired to the pub for some chips, games and to warm up!

15 children from years 3,4,5,6 performed in a concert of song at the Parkhouse Centre in Bude on Friday March 16th.

The concert was part of the Cornish Music Hub 'Songfest 2018' which invites children of all ages to be involved in singing at a range of concerts across the county. This year the theme was West Country folk songs.

The children had to learn, not only the music and harmonies but also the words for 11 folk songs based around the months of the year. They practised hard, with some support from Georgina Bridle from the Music Hub, and they and we were justifiably proud of their efforts singing with children from 5 other local schools.

Some of our musicians were also part of an instrumental piece performed as part of the concert.

Well Done Jacobstow School at 'Cornwall Songfest 2018'

Jacobstow School children also celebrated World Book Day – a slightly delayed event this year as there was a snow day on March 1st! But, what a fantastic assortment of book characters we had; there was a smile on everyone's face.

SNOW IN JACOBSTOW! Although it's April, please e mail us your snow photos so we can put them on the village website.

Snowman built by Robin Jones using his digger and helped by Jay & Eloise. Left are Reggie, Jo & Alfie Turner. Below Jay & Eloise Jones.

LAMBING TIME. At West Witheven Farm there is a very special lamb this year. He has one black leg. When I asked farmer Steven Turner what the lamb was called, he said it didn't have a name. I suggested a good old pirate name, Black Leg but later that day I received a text saying the family had decided to call the lamb Guinness. What a great name for a lovely lamb.

NOW IS THE MONTH OF MAYING - MAY FACTS

- MAYDAY! MAYDAY! Mayday got its start as an international distress call in 1923. It was made official in 1948. It was the idea of Frederick Mockford, a senior radio officer at Croydon Airport. He came up with the idea for "Mayday" because it sounded like the French word m'aider, which means "Help me."

- THE MAYFLOWER. The Mayflower was an English ship that transported the first English Puritans, known today as the Pilgrims, from Plymouth, to the New World in 1620.

- MAYFLY. There are 51 species of mayfly in Britain. They live in fast-flowing rivers & still lakes, where the larvae spend their lives underwater. The adults hatch out in summer, and have very short lives (just hours) during which they display and breed; their sole purpose is to reproduce and once they have mated, they die.

- MAYHEM.

meaning active disorder intended to cause harm or damage, came to English from the Old French "mahaigne," meaning intentional injury. It is also the title of a song by 43 year old Imelda MAY, Irish singer song writer, inspired by Billie Holiday.

In February, members enjoyed an entertaining and informative talk about Lundy Island with slides of Lundy's varied and beautiful scenery. Our AGM was held in March combined with a members' evening. We have a varied programme of talks and activities to look forward to in the coming year and we'll be celebrating our 80th birthday! Each year we bring our members' craft, floral art and cookery skills together for the local show season which challenges us to try new things and stretches the imagination to find something different. This year is no exception and we'll soon be planning our group entry for the Royal Cornwall Show (7 - 9 June) with the theme "A Picnic on the Beach" and also for the Holsworthy and Stratton Show (23 Aug) where the theme is "All the Fun of the Fair"

Forthcoming meetings: April: We will be visiting Davidstow Milk Factory.

May 10th will be a members' evening.

The W.I. always welcomes new members so do come along to a meeting at Jacobstow Parish Hall or contact the president, Mrs Jill Baker 01840 239829. We meet on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7.30 and you can be sure of a warm welcome.

Update on Big Field Planning Review

GE's judicial review, known in this context as a Planning Review, is being heard in the Royal Courts of Justice, London, on 19 April. This is NOT deciding whether they get planning permission. It is deciding whether the process itself was lawful, specifically on whether the Sec. of State/Planning Inspector took sufficient account of the community benefits!!!! I'm sure you share my incredulity at that one. GE's others grounds for Review have fallen away. True to form, their lawyers have submitted 100's of pages of evidence I'm told. The planning decision is being defended by lawyers for the Sec. of State. CARE is an interested party but doesn't take part. Cornwall Council could have taken part but elected not to. The decision is not expected for a couple months after the hearing.

JACOBSTOW AMBLERS = All welcome.

Next walk: Phone Mary: 01840 230656. Or Celia: 01566 781473

Jacobstow Amblers set off for their walk on February 28th from the Parish Hall to St James's Well. After weeks of dull days and rain, it was sunny, cold, crisp and fresh - a real treat. Mary led Rachel, Celia and Sally past the church and left onto the footpath through the Rectory and field into the small wood. The frost had made the snow drops droop but they were still flowering across the stream, daffodils were just showing and the ramsons beginning to push through. The path and field were still firm after the frost unlike the mud in previous weeks. All the kissing gates have engraved plaques with a delightful verse on each, thanks to Mary who also ensures the path stays clear. The gate leading into the well area had broken but we were delighted to see it repaired and stones laid on the approach thanks to Walter Shepherd – much appreciated. The well was looking lovely in the sun – a very peaceful spot. Mary kindly invited us back for hot chocolate and showed us an album of how the well had evolved from a muddy hollow to the stone alcove and protected area it is now, thanks to the school, and her own efforts. It remains an important ancient location and local haven which we are fortunate to enjoy. Many thanks to John Penfound who met us half way at Widemouth with hot chocolates in the January walk.

BLANQUETTE OF LAMB or Cheesy Lamb

This has been one of my family's favourite cold lamb rehashes.

Cold cooked lamb remains and veg
from Sunday joint perhaps.

1 diced carrot and/or mixed roots or any cold vegetables you have left over.

2 medium sliced onions

Clove of garlic

Herbs and/or gravy cube

Tin chopped tomatoes to taste

Salt to taste

Flour/cornflour to thicken

Preparation

Prepare and dice vegetables and cook. 10-15 mins

Slice and fry onions and garlic

Cut the remaining cooked, cold lamb from the bone, and cut into neat pieces

Drain off most the water from vegetables and add tomatoes, onions, garlic and seasoning etc and thicken.

Stir in cold lamb to the mix

Put mixture into a heat-proof dish

Grate cheese over the top and put in the oven for 30 mins or until the cheese is nice and crispy.

We usually serve with mashed potatoes and extra vegetables.

Birding at My Own Front Door - Dennis Adey

One of the joys of living in this wonderful area and village is the tremendous amount of wildlife and birds that are on our doorstep. Feeding birds has brought many visitors to our bird feeders. Keeping the birds fed through the unusually cold winter snap we experienced recently must have been a great help. Having been a weekly recorder for the British Trust for Ornithology for over 60 years, the variety of birds seen has increased greatly, even including the rarer species of Bullfinch, Green Finch, Siskin and Goldfinch. Spending a little money on corn and bird feed can enhance your pleasure if you have time to "Watch and stare".

A Buzzard regularly visits our garden. We were thrilled when after 17 years of seeing the swallows arrive they actually chose to take up residence by our back door! . Another thrill was having the Kestrel visit us; it sat on the back wall having just missed the opportunity of dinner, looking a bit fed up. The Sparrow Hawk is a much better hunter and rarely misses out. All species visit our garden, at the moment a group of 10 female and 3 male Pheasants have taken up residence. When fed each morning with corn, one is so tame he follows me around and feeds out of my-hand. We are not so enamoured when the local Grey Heron visits our fish pond, but keeping it netted seems to deter him. The Canada Geese are flying over and a murmuration of several hundred Starlings returning each year in the winter make a stunning sight. There's always something to get excited about. Please keep feeding the birds.

Buzzard

KID'S PAGE

Happy May Day! Did you know that on May 1st people danced around a tree or Maypole to celebrate their crops growing and bringing children into the world? Maybe you would like to make a Maypole for you and your friends to dance round or you could make a small one for your toys to dance round? People used to skip round the Maypole so here are some dance moves you could try: Choose any music you like.

Circle Dance: Each dancer needs a ribbon. All skip round the Maypole. Then turn round and dance the other way to untwist the ribbons.

Or divide the dancers into 2 groups, each with different ribbon colours. One group goes in one direction whilst the other group goes in the opposite direction.

For more ideas go to www.thedancelady.com

Don't forget skipping is one of the best sports exercises you can do. It's done by footballers, boxers and most sports people!

The Shahnameh – review by Celia Sousek

On a bitterly cold evening a large audience at Crackington Institute was treated to The Shahnameh, The Epic Books of Kings, performed by Xanthe Gresham Knight (storyteller) and Arash Moradi (musician). The Shahnameh is a Persian epic written over 1000 years ago and the excellent performance offered a collection of stories from the poem. The beautiful stories and music performed by Xanthe and Arash transported the audience to the exotic world of ancient Persia, with mythical birds, horses, heroes and lovers. It was a wonderful evening.

OUR RIVERS, THE THREATS THAT FACE THEM & HOW YOU CAN HELP Talk by Simon Browning of the Westcountry Rivers Trust – report by Celia Sousek

Having previously worked for the Environment Agency, Simon is now based in Bude working for the Westcountry Rivers Trust. Simon talked particularly about the catchment area of the Crackington streams and how threats from soil erosion, sewage overflow, pesticides and run off from farm slurry can affect the quality of the water as it enters the sea at Crackington Haven.

One of the initiatives that the Trust has introduced is Citizen Science Investigations – a growing community of citizen scientists monitoring the quality of local rivers. The aim is to record as many surveys across the region as possible, using the data to flag up persistent, low level pollution problems or areas where habitat can be improved, and giving volunteer groups an easy way of recording their local river or stream, including good things (wildlife sightings) and bad (pollution, litter and invasive plants).

Once signed up, volunteers start by taking observational surveys, using the Westcountry CSI form - recording information on plants, wildlife, river condition and any visible pollution. Volunteers can then progress to taking some water quality measurements, using simple equipment provided by Trust. Turbidity tubes are used to measure how murky the water is, pocket-sized probes to test for dissolved solids and a simple test kit for measuring phosphates. Having completed a survey, volunteers then add their data to the Cartographer website where it appears on an interactive map alongside other surveys. It is totally flexible where and how often a volunteer does a survey. As a result of Simon's talk, it was decided to set up a local Citizen Science Investigations group in Crackington.

Further information about the Westcountry Rivers Trust can be found on their website: <http://wrt.org.uk>
