Just a few things we need to keep you all informed about.

We are over the moon to see that we are firmly lodged into people's minds and they think of us whenever they need to let the whole village know about something they are planning. This is the situation we have been hoping for since we set the Journal up. The flip side to this is that sometimes the deadline gets a bit squeaky and we end up having to do a major juggling act to get everything in. So in future the deadline for articles will be on the 15th of the month before the Journal is due to be published. So, for example, for this Journal dated June/July, the deadline was 15th May. I am afraid we are going to have to be strict about this if the Journal team are to remain sane!

If you do miss the deadline, don't despair, you can always post the village event or club on our Facebook page at jacobstow village. Why not join and get involved, we can also maybe share ideas and anything that you want to sell or swap can also be bunged on. As this is a page for the community the same rules apply here as for this Journal, the Website and indeed the community notice boards. You cannot advertise a business or event that does not have the interest of the village at heart.

We are always happy to include community events in the Journal for free. If you want this done as a flyer there will be a charge of £5 to cover printing costs, no profit will be made. Also, if we have more than one request for a flyer then they will be double sided. We are also planning our AGM which will be on Monday 17th July at Barton House, Canworthy Water, all are welcome.

Jacobstow Parish Council

Chairman: Mr. Norman Osborne 01840-230592

Parish Clerk: Mrs D. Turner 01566-781269

Members: Mrs Charmaine Smith Mr Dennis Adey Mrs Caroline Pallett
Mrs Ilona Franklyn Mr Ray Fox Mr Peter Chapman

The Parish Council meets in the Parish Hall on the 1st Tuesday of every month (except for August). Meetings commence at 7.30 pm. Members of the Public are welcome to attend but any items for inclusion on the Agenda should be submitted to the Parish Clerk at least 10 days before the meeting. There is an opportunity to raise questions at the beginning and end of the Council meeting but questions (and answers) raised at these times are not recorded in the Minutes. Agenda and Minutes of previous meetings on the village website www.jacobstowvillage.co.uk

Editor's Note The report on each month's Parish Council Meeting is a summary prepared by the Parish Clerk. We have omitted certain minor items for brevity but a full version of the Minutes is displayed on the Parish Hall Notice Board (after formal approval) at the following month's Parish Council meeting.

Summary of Minutes of Meeting held on 4th April, 2017

Cllr Charmaine Smith chaired the monthly meeting of the Parish Council with four Councillors, County Cllr Nicky Chopak and ten members of the public attending. Our local MP Scott Mann gave a talk on his work and answered many questions put to him by the Parishioners. One of the main questions was the problem of the poor Broadband at the school.

Cllr. Fox & The Clerk had attended a meeting at Marhamchurch regarding Neighbourhood Planning. It was decided to have a discussion on this at the next meeting.

Planning Application PA17/01946 – Dr & Mrs Waumsley – Side and rear extensions with terrace & alterations to convert garage 6, Southcott Meadows, Jacobstow. Councillors support this.

Application – Mr & Mrs Smith for removal of Condition 2 (Occupancy condition). Cornwall Council refused this.

Planning Application – PA17/02548 – Mr D Bye & Miss V Sargeant. Outline Planning for a dwelling at Watervale, Canworthy Water. Councillors unanimously object to this Proposal. It is not infill or rounding. It is a house in the countryside and it is on a floodplain.

Summary of Meeting held on 16th May, 2017

As this was the AGM the meeting began with the election of Officers from the newly elected Councillors.

Re-election of Chairman, Cllr. Osborne, re-election of Vice-Chairperson, Cllr.C. Smith and re-election of Responsible Financial Officer Mrs D A Turner.

Mrs M Carter spoke on upgrading some of the Footpaths. Cllr.Chapman to get a quote for this.

The Internal Audit had been completed and the Audit form was completed by Councillors.

Accounts to be paid were CALC £213.22 Insurance Premium with AON £230.89 and Internal Auditor £50.

Planning Application PA17/03728 – Mrs Joanna Bailey- Proposed internal refurbishment and extension. – Trelea Barn, Sudcott Farm, Jacobstow. The majority of Councillors support this.

Neighbourhood Plan – This was discussed and decided that the Clerk should send the necessary letter with plan of Parish to the Planning Dept.

Scott Mann's Visit to our Parish Council Meeting

Scott attended our Parish Council meeting in April. Here are some of the issues that he talked about and also that some of the people at the meeting raised questions about.

Broadband was a very hot topic. Apparently there is a “not Spot” map which shows places that do not have sufficient coverage, we are included on this map. Everyone should have 10mb Internet speed by 2020 under a government bill, this will include 8,000 houses in Cornwall, Jacobstow is on this list.

Social Care - extra money is being raised from Council Tax to fund Social Care and Cornwall Council are going to issue a plan so we can see where this money is being spent. Scott wants to see Cornwall Council giving more funding to local councils 24 hour ambulance cover - at the moment, if an local ambulance takes a patient to Derriford, Truro or Barnstaple, it then automatically gets its next call out from that area, so being assigned to Devon. Scott is pushing for the ambulance to come back to our area straight away.

Schools funding - Looking for a better deal for Jacobstow and Budehaven schools.

Driving licences - as the EU logo is going to be removed from our licences Scott wants our regional flag to be included.

This is a fair representation of the events of the evening. In light of the forthcoming General Election, when the Journal understands that Dan Rogerson is standing against Scott Mann, we are not showing any favouritism to Scott, just reporting the meeting.

Surgeries : From 3rd May when parliament is dissolved for the General Election, Scott will be a parliamentary candidate, not an MP so will not be holding any surgeries

Jacobstow Neighbourhood Watch

Action Fraud

National Fraud & Cyber Crime Reporting Centre

0300 123 2040

Action Fraud is not an emergency service

dial 999 if you are in immediate danger.

There has been a series of recent incidents reported to Action Fraud where a lone fraudster has approached victims whom they believe to be unfamiliar with the local area. They make an excuse to talk to the victims such as enquiring about directions or offering a recommendation for a good hotel.

After this interaction, several other fraudsters will intervene purporting to be police officers in plain clothes and will sometimes present false identification as proof. The fake officers will then give a reason to examine the victims' wallet, purse or personal items. They may also examine the first fraudster's items or try to tell victims that the first fraudster is suspicious in order to gain victim trust and appear more realistic in their guise.

After all the fake police 'checks' are finished, victims have then reported being handed back their personal items only to later realise that a quantity of money or valuables were missing.

How to protect yourself:

If an individual claims to be a police officer ask for their name and rank, force, and examine any identification presented; this is always good practice but especially important if they are not wearing a uniform.

The Police will never ask for your passwords or PIN details. Do not give this information to anyone.

The Police will never request that you withdraw/transfer any money to them or to a 'safe' account.

If you have been affected by this, or any other fraud, report it to Action Fraud by visiting www.actionfraud.police.uk

Any urgent information will be posted on the jacobstow village facebook page, don't worry if you do not use Facebook, go to the jacobstow village web page and follow the link from there

A Plastic Sea? By Jeanne Gimblett

Already the sea is filled with 165,000,000 tons of plastic and by 2050 the plastic in our oceans could outweigh the fish. Since the introduction of the 5p plastic bag there has been an 85% reduction in bags used. Sadly this is just a nibble at the edge of our present use of throw-away plastic. I began to worry about the way we use plastic packaging after a walk on Widemouth beach. Under my feet, beside the familiar flotsam and jetsam, was a fine coating of tiny coloured particles. These were minute fragments of plastic, in effect 'plastic sand'. Plastic pieces so small, so intertwined within the earth and seas, that we are unable to clean them away.

We all know that tons of plastic are regularly cleared from our beaches but do we know how dangerous it is? Plastic waste is affecting our eco-system. The small particles are ingested by marine life, they enter the food-chain, sour the waters and kill off sea plants. Marine debris is found in many different forms from plastic water bottles to derelict ships. Seabirds become entangled in nylon fishing nets and line and 6 pack wrappers. Waste plastics take between 400 to 600 years to degrade. Sixteen million plastic bottles are dumped everyday and more than 8,000,000 tonnes of plastic is dumped into oceans each year. In the UK over 7,000,000 plastic coffee cups are thrown away each day. Our disposable lifestyle means that 50% of plastic is used just once. The farmer's market in Bude, Holsworthy Market and our locally owned stores have unwrapped vegetables and use much less plastic especially if you have your own bags. We buy take away plastic-wrapped sandwiches; try buying direct from the small baker or hot pasty shop and have them pack it in a paper bag, or make your own packed lunch. Use greaseproof paper and avoid cling film. I intend to write to the big super-markets asking for them to consider having a plastic free aisle. If you have ideas please send them to the Journal. If you enjoy a challenge go the plastic-free website www.plasticfreejuly.org. Did you know they are now filling pot holes with waste plastic?

CHURCH AND CHAPEL NEWS & EVENTS

Eden Chapel – The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe display April 6-9th 2017

Young Mathew Parsons, aged 7 yrs old, summed up his visit through the wardrobe to Eden Chapel's display as "awesome."

What better review do we need! A project that started when a wardrobe, used for storage, was being moved through a doorway has developed over the last 18 months. Eden Chapel turning into the enchanted world that Mathew and others visited. Working with a 'zero' budget and the goodwill of Team Eden plus friends, donations and loans of props from local businesses and Otterham CP school, has helped us raise £145.00 for our chosen appeals: our own Young at Heart club and purchasing essential items for the children and families displaced in Syria. We are truly grateful for everyone's support. Thank you

Gift Aid Day

This year Jacobstow Church Gift Aid Day is on Saturday 17th June.

The church will be open from 10am until 3pm for you to bring your yellow gift aid envelopes and put them in the famous milk churn or you can hand your envelope to Ray or Brian our Church Wardens. If you have not received a yellow envelope don't worry there will be spares in church. There will also be tea and cake to enjoy so please come.

This year we are having a separate collection towards the restoration of the two Angel pictures we wrote about in the last edition of the Journal and we will have a few 'Angels' for you to buy. Brian Marshall has been very busy on behalf of the appeal and has raised another £1000 but we still have a long way to go so every penny helps.

A HISTORY OF JACOBSTOW SCHOOL. PART TWO

Various heads struggled to cope with the running of the school, particularly the care of the youngest children, until Mr W. Wager arrived, running the school with his wife, which helped greatly. Mr Amos Fry then took over with his wife and it was during his head-ship that the school received a presentation bell to commemorate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee. While Britain's wealth and power expanded mightily, Mr Fry still wrote in the 1895 log book "Necessitated to send home a little boy for smelling offensively"... During Mr Fry's headship the Rev. Frederick Batchelor died in 1897. He was a great loss to the school, having probably done more than anyone to get the school on its feet and even in his old age, continued to help with the teaching of reading at every opportunity.

The start of the 1900's saw the coronation of Edward VI and a new head, Mr W. T. Moor and his wife. In 1905 however, his wife had to give up working at the school due to ill health caused by the damp conditions of the new school house. Also the Moor's daughter suffered so much, she had to be sent away. Mrs Maw worked hard to get a new assistant for her husband, and it was only by threatening an ultimatum to the inspectors that they finally got Miss Cowling to help at the school. Mr Moor was highly praised for his good work.

In Part 3 we will be looking at the quest for better premises. From the start the buildings had been deemed as unsatisfactory although no record of this appeared until 1894.

The photo was kindly lent to The Journal by Mrs Gert Cowling and was taken to commemorate the 1935 Silver Jubilee Year of King George V.

CANWORTHY BOOK CLUB

Nelly Dean by Alison Case

Based around the Wuthering Heights classic, this tale is told by Nelly, the maid of all work, filling in several "gaps". It took a while to get into. I enjoyed the different perspective which retained elements of the original by Emily Bronte. However it didn't explain Heathcliff.

It was well written and a good page turner by a Professor of Literature who had studied Emily Bronte's work.

Painted Veil by Somerset Maugham

It is the 1930s and Kitty's mother expected much of her pretty elder daughter. However when her sister nabbed a baronet, Kitty accepted Walker and returned to Hong Kong with him.

She wasn't happy and after an affair her life becomes traumatic.

Most of us felt sorry for as she was partly a victim of social attitudes of that time. Others thought she was rather shallow and manipulative.

Well written by a man, from a women's point of view.

March was very much what one would expect. Total rainfall was 4.25,"up on previous years here at Canworthy Water. Distribution was fairly spread over the month, with the usual mix of some heavy showers.

Of particular note, however, was that the region had a very near miss from a storm system overnight on the 5/6th. This tracked to the south of the UK, producing prolonged rainfall over the 24 hours and winds gusting to 41 mph at the station here. But on the SE flank of this weather system hurricane force winds existed with a gust of 120 mph recorded just off-shore on the Brittany coast. This was easily on par with the very destructive 1987 storm and had a similar tropical origin. What was somewhat unusual about this was that one would not expect to see such a development at this time of the year, which is normally a rare Autumn feature.

April was noted for a very low rainfall, only 1.06" being collected here in total. Of this some 0.44" fell up to the 29th, and 0.55" was collected the following day. An interesting observation here was that there was little or no soaking into the ground locally and it resulted in quite a rapid rise in the Ottery which was equally short-lived.

Also of note in April was quite a sharp air-frost overnight on the 27th, -2° being recorded on all the thermometers here. This did quite a bit of damage to new leaf, but mercifully the apple blossom was a little late here so undamaged.

There are no adverse signs as yet of what sort of summer we will receive, but we certainly have had a persistence of Easterly winds which if persists into May will keep the rainfall limited. We will doubtless see...

As we have 3 girls completing their Baden-Powell award several evenings were handed over to them, in the second half of the spring term, to complete clauses towards their awards. They ran a disability awareness evening, an international evening based on Switzerland, a co-operative games evening where we were joined by Marhamchurch Brownies in the hope that some would like to join when they are old enough. There was also a bingo evening to raise funds for their BP adventure. On the Saturday before Thinking Day we joined with Jacobstow Rainbows and Brownies to have an afternoon out at Trethorne Leisure Farm. We of course made the obligatory pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, then had a Promise Ceremony on the beach (by candle light) the following week. We rounded the term's activities off with a visit from a peer educator who completed a session on communication. This term we are spending most of our meetings outside going for walks, having cookouts and practising pitching tents in time for our weekend camp in June. We would love to be able to offer this kind of opportunity to more girls in the area, but in order to do so we need more adults to volunteer their time, which not only provides opportunities for the girls but also gives the volunteers the opportunity to make new friends and go on adventures. Dear Journal Team,

We live with our two boys at Langdon Hill towards Canworthy Water and as we regularly walk out between our farm and the surrounding area we daily pick up multiple pieces of rubbish thrown out of vehicles. We know most of it is deposited by drivers as it is often takeaway rubbish, Costa Coffee cups, plastic drink bottles etc.

It is particularly bad all along the road between Canworthy Water and Wainhouse for some reason, maybe it is the given time to complete your snack/drink from time of purchase, and that it is a rat run to the A30? >

But today whilst driving, the driver in front of me blatantly threw a screwed up paper bag out of the window which was obviously his snack! This really annoyed me when we are spending time picking up after these people that are too lazy to put it in a bin at the next convenient opportunity. >

I have never done this before, but I managed to get the driver to stop and pointed out the error of his ways in a polite but firm manner. He did apologise and said it was an 'accident' then admitted it was a bad habit! I pointed out that we live down this road and are fed up with picking up other people's litter. He assured me he would pick it up on his way back through later..... If not I guess it'll be another one for us!

I just really want to highlight that if we educate people, and our children at an early age to respect the environment and the impact of their actions, then maybe we can make a small difference? And remember please to take your litter home instead of expecting others to pick up after you. Does it really take that much effort to take it home and put it in the bin? Thank you.

Jo Marriot

Many thanks to all our Parish residents who voted in May to return all the hard working Parish Councillors of the previous Parish Council. One hard working councillor had to stand down due to poor health; so thanks to Bob Reason for all his enthusiasm and best wishes also.

It is hoped that the newest councillor will do her best to help fill the gap and will become part of an efficient team, constantly negotiating with "One Cornwall" about all our local issues. Unfortunately the usual reply is "lack of funding", however, we do have a good relationship with the various department heads. With constant help and support from Nicky Chopak, our newly returned District Councillor we do manage to get some success, for example most of the potholes have been repaired!

Scott Mann, our MP is on the case with us over the areas poor broadband signal (you can read about his visit to the Parish Council on page 4 of this edition) We are still fighting to retain the village telephone box at the Parish Hall, this facility is vital at the moment because of poor mobile signals with some providers.

I'm sure you will continue to review our work, both in the Journal, on our village website www.jacobstowvillage.co.uk and the published minutes every month. You could, of course, always come to a Parish Council meeting, you can be assured of a very warm welcome.

Bob's Gardening Spot

The best way to revive tired spots on your lawn is to give it a liquid feed and remove any annual weeds. If you are composting grass in a bin try to a layer it with crumpled or torn up newspaper, this causes an air pocket so that the grass does not go slimy and rot rather than composting.

Any shrubs that have finished flowering can now be cut back to a stem joint or leaf, but cut the older and thickest stems back really low down.

Any rhododendrons you have now need to have the faded flowers pinched off so that you can see the new leaf buds underneath.

Lilacs can be cut down to about 18 inches if they are getting over grown or leggy. Now is also the time to take cuttings from any strong growing plants ready for next year.

Happy Gardening.....Bob

Jacobstow School – London Trip 2017

WOW! We had fun and squeezed as much as possible into our 3 day trip to London – the Houses of Parliament, the Pineapple Dance Studio dance workshop, the Lion King, the Lego Shop, Platform 9 & $\frac{3}{4}$ and the Harry Potter Shop, the Natural History Museum, the London Eye and a walk up the Mall to Buckingham Palace – it was fabulous. The children were beautifully behaved and took in everything that we did with excitement and loads of brilliant questions; never have we seen so many exhausted 10 and 11 year olds! We were incredibly proud of them and it was a trip to remember.

One Of Mary's Senior Moments!!

The other day Mick and I decided to go for a bike ride. We loaded our bikes into the car and drove to Camelford where we unloaded our bikes. Our plan was to ride to Blisland across the moors. As we cycled, I thought my feet felt odd. I looked down and...Oh! Still had my slippers on despite having all the rest of the kit on. (My son in law, a keen cyclist, makes sure I'm dressed for the part) Anyway, we'd come all this way so I decided to get on with it. Thank goodness I still didn't have clip on pedals. I got a few bemused smiles. A builder coming out of the pub at St Breward asked where we had come from? He reckoned we had done well. But then I declared how I had done the journey in my slippers and showed him in case he didn't believe me. It's always the way isn't it.? We got a bit lost coming from the pub. Ended up in this delightful cul de sac and who should be there but Julian the local window cleaner, one of my fellow bell ringers. He's still teasing me.

Parking Problems outside Jacobstow School - Sue Russell, Head

We haven't actually put a notice up but we have asked parents through our newsletter to make sure they don't park opposite the school entry and the church hall so that the buses can turn; there was an accident the other week between a bus and a car.

However, the local authority have just informed us that they are formalising the parking restrictions outside school to conform with changes in the legal duties around parking at schools. They are extending the current no parking zone and legally enforcing it with a no parking sign on a pole outside the Parish Hall.

Bude, Stratton & District Old Cornwall Society

The Parkhouse Centre was a picture of community warmth and friendship as the Bude, Stratton & District branch of the 'Old Cornwall Society' gathered for their monthly talk. The Society chairman, Alan McIntosh did a sterling job, entertaining and informing a room of more than 70 members and guests all there to learn about "The Edwards Family of Bude." Anyone associated with Bude will be familiar with the name of Sam Edwards Garage. Yet, there inevitably comes a time when no one living remembers yesteryear first hand and this is where the beauty of a body like the Federation of Old Cornwall Societies can really shine. Starting with William Edwards, born 1760, in Minster Parish, Alan's lively talk spanned the centuries up to modernity and included several historical references to Bude business, property and people. Following in the footsteps of W. Edwards' son who fought in the Napoleonic wars, Alan's research told how John Edwards would walk into town from St. Gennys to meet his sweetheart Ann Pearce, daughter of a Waggoner from Launcells Parish. Married in 1857 they moved to Bude whereby John took a job as Yard-man for Hocking and Hooper merchants, a company that once stood where the Strand Hotel no longer does; where famous street artist 'Banksy' is rumoured to have visited. There are archived slides of times long ago, picture boats moored up just yards away from the steps of The Carriers Inn. In 1890, John and family moved again to 2 Morwenna Terrace, starting up the Post House that would sort and deliver mail to the district. Today the site of Arthur W Bryant Funeral Service, the Posting House stabled the many horses required to deliver and relay the mail and in light of this contained its own forge. Mr and Mrs J Edwards had 13 children and through them Alan's lecture continuously weaved its way into a by-gone era of family lives lived, shaping the story of Bude and the changes in society these folks all bore witness to. If you have a love of Cornwall, its people and the truth of their history, or feel you could help Society Recorder, Michael Heard to put names to faces on a photograph of the U.D.C in 1958, then please feel welcome to join them. Rabbit in the Magic Top Hat

For weeks now the white stone rabbit had been sitting under the old pine tree in Sofia's garden in France. He listened to Sofia as she played in the garden on her swing. Sometimes she picked him up and carried him carefully to her toy cart and then she would pull him round the garden in it. Being made of stone made Rabbit very heavy for Sofia to carry as she was quite small and it required a lot of effort from her. She picked the long green grass from the wilder parts of the garden and sprinkled it in the cart for Rabbit to eat. One day Sofia's mummy, Liz, told her that they were going on a ferry to England to visit her grandparents. Sofia wanted to pack Rabbit in her case but mummy told her he was far too heavy, so Sofia packed her doll instead. When Sofia and her mummy boarded the ferry, they saw a notice saying there was a Magic Show that afternoon in the stage area. They took their seats, the curtains opened, the lights went up and the magician stepped forward wearing bright stripy trousers, a big hat and a long check jacket. He had a big black and silver box on stage and began by pulling out a red hanky which he gave to a little boy in the audience. He also gave him a baguette which he asked him to break in two. As the boy snapped the baguette, the hanky disappeared. The magician asked the boy to hold the two pieces of baguette together, then he waved his wand and the baguette was whole again! Then he asked a girl to snap the baguette in half and hey presto, what was inside it? The red hanky! The magician performed many tricks and made the children laugh.

“And now for my final trick” announced the magician. He bowed and took off his hat with a flourish. “I need a volunteer from the audience.” Sofia put up her hand and the magician called her to the stage. “Now I would like you to put your hand in the hat.” Sofia did so and said “It’s empty” The magician waved his wand and said “ABRACALAPIN!” Sofia nearly fell over because suddenly the hat had become very heavy. She put her hand cautiously into the hat and felt something just like her stone rabbit; yes she could feel its ears. The magician wave his wand again, repeating the spell “ABRACALAPIN!” The hat felt lighter now and instead of stone ears, she seemed to be stroking furry ears. “Show us what’s in the hat Sofia” called the magician. Sofia pulled out a beautiful white bunny and she thought she heard it whisper to her “Don’t worry, you’re not hurting my ears.” The audience gasped, there was a puff of smoke and the rabbit vanished. Everyone clapped, Sofia took a bow and went back to sit with her mummy, feeling dazed, confused and full of wonder. When Sofia and her mummy arrived in England that evening they were very pleased to see her grandparents. Sofia was very tired after her long day and so her mummy began to help her unpack her suitcase. Do you know what they found inside? It was Sofia’s white stone rabbit!
